LOYALTY SONG

We're loyal to you Lead High,
We're maroon and white, Lead High,
We'll back you to stand 'gainst the best in the
For we know that you have said, Lead High (rah,
So smash that blockade Lead High,
Go crashing ahead Lead High,
Our team is our fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a victory
From you, Lead High.
Chorus: Chorus: Chorus: Chorus:
Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! L. H. S.
Fling out that dear old flag of maroon and white,
Lead on your classmates who are fighting for you,
Like men of old on giants placing their reliance,
Shouting defiance, Oakes, O! O!
And the rich gold mines that nourish our land,
For honest labor and learning we stand,
And with love we pledge our heart and hand,
We're strong for you O! Lead High School.

ON LIND HIGH SCHOOL
(To be sung at assembly)

Lind School, on Lind High School,
Maroon and white, on Lind High School,
This is our fight!

Seamen Tom Staley and Melvin Brand lead Derril Wright (center) off to the dungeon for "Crimes unknown."

Terry Gukeisen, Melvin Brand, Derril Wright and "Skeeter" Boyer, sailors, prepare to hoist the sail.

Karen Gustafson pleads with Derril Wright not to pull the trigger as Judy Gullickson plugs her ears and turns her head.

"A" Chorus Presents "H.M.S. Pinafore"

Sisters and cousins and aunts of the First Lord of the Admiralty join in the springtime fun.

Humor, pathos, romance, jealousy filled the air when the "A" chorus under the direction of Dwight Hall presented the annual operetta, "HMS Pinafore," by Gilbert and Sullivan Wednesday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

In addition to the principles the chorus members played the parts of the sisters, cousins, and aunts of the First Lord of the Admiralty, Richard Holtry, and the able seamen of Captain Corcoran, Richard Meador.

In the end everyone succeeded in becoming matched with the "One" in his heart.

Bette Jo Magers and John Chilcott decorate the schoolhouse prior to the meeting of the trustees.

Mountain School Provides Scene For Comedy

Tom Staley, Derril Wright, Sue Taylor, and Diane Engel listen to John Moyer, as he relates his views on schools.

"The Thread That Runs So True," a three-act comedy by Jesse Stuart, was presented by the junior class Tuesday, November 3, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Laughter, suspense and romance were present when students of all ages, some co-operative, others not so co-operative, gathered at Lonesome Valley school in the backwoods of Kentucky to get some "book larnin'" from the new teacher.

Bette Jo Magers looks on as John Chilcott temporarily has Terry Gukeisen under control.

Dwight W. Hall, director, watches intently from the wings at rehearsal.

Jorand Tollefson, Dorothy Cottingham, Warren Satterlee, John Chilcott, Bette Jo Magers, and Marcia Magers are diligently studying the new lesson while John Moye audits tolerantly.

John Booher tells Richard Meador, Helen Branden, Marilyn Hendrickson and Ellen Branden to carry the furnishings to the new house.

Senior Class Presents Three-Act Comedy

Judy Gullickson tries to buy Creole Lilies from John Booher and Marilyn Hendrickson with little success.

Gary Roselles is about to teach Larry Orr a lesson for "taking Cajuns' jobs and stealing their gals."

Emily Lee listens as Myrna Eidsness and Mary Lue Gaughen tell her about the new doorsteps.

"The Great Big Doorstep," a three-act comedy, was presented by the senior class, Tuesday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The play centered around the purchase of a new house to go on the "stupendable doorsteps" that the Commodore fished out of the river.

Marilyn Hendrickson, Helen Branden, Dennis Dunn, Ellen Branden, John Booher, Mary Lue Gaughen and Myrna Eidsness sit down to a dinner provided by Uncle Dewey (Dunn) on one of his rare visits to the Crochet home.

Diggers Make State Again

Six returning lettermen, headed by All-Stater Gordon Swanson, from the 1959 State runner-up cage squad formed the nucleus of Coach Bill Ausmann's 1959-60 team. The veterans included Swanson, Jack Arbogast, Dennis Aschenbrenner, Terry Gukeisen, Kenneth Carr, and Dennis Dunn.

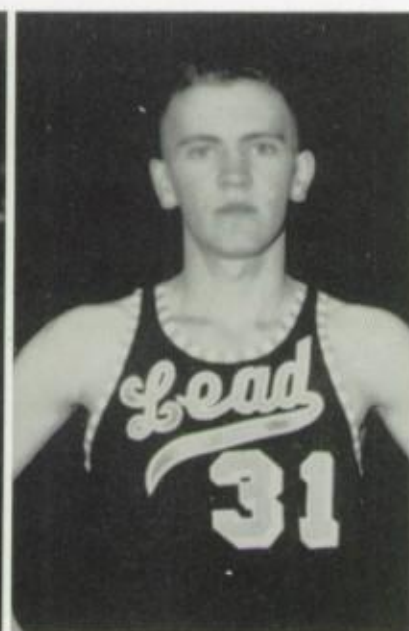

The season began uncertainly with early losses to Chamberlain and Custer, but the club rallied to win the Sturgis Invitational Tournament. The Diggers dropped a close one to Rapid City after leading the whole first half. Then began a six-game winning streak that carried the local team to third place standing in the conference, which they retained to the end of the season.

Lead defeated Spearfish and Belle in the regional tournament to earn a trip to the state meet in Huron.

After easily defeating Pierre in the first round, the Diggers hit a "cold" night and lost a heartbreaker to defending champions, Watertown, in the semifinals. Lead finished fourth in the tournament.
